

9th of October, 2018.

To commemorate the 150th birth anniversary of the Father of Nation, Mahatma Gandhi, the Department of Students Welfare, University of Jammu organised a seminar on the topic 'Relevance of Mahatma Gandhi in Contemporary Era'. Prof. Anurag Gangal, Director Gandhian Centre, University of Jammu was the Keynote speaker and the event was coordinated by Dr. Seema Rohmetra, Coordinator Gandhi Peace Foundation, Jammu Chapter. Dean Students Welfare, Prof. Shailender Singh Jamwal and Assistant Dean SW, Dr. Garima Gupta was also present at the occasion. Prof. Anurag Gangal discussed in detail about different aspects of Gandhian Philosophy. In a comprehensive manner, he presented the idea of non-violence, global-brotherhood and swachhta. Dr. Seema Rohmetra, in her presentation, highlighted Mahatma Gandhi's ideas in the context of contemporary economics, politics, education and society. In his welcome address, Prof. Shailender Singh explained in detail about the goal of organizing such an event of high importance for University Students which helps them in imbibing the positive traits. Earlier Shumalini and Amogh, students of the University of Jammu presented a Bhajan which was attributed to Mahatma Gandhi. Dr. Garima Gupta presented the Vote of Thanks.