(For detailed information/admission)

The University of Jammu established in 1969 has emerged as one of the leading Universities of India and has been reaccredited as 'A' grade by NAAC.

The University during the last 4 decades has shown accelerated growth in infrastructure and academics. With just 11 departments and 10 numbers of affiliated colleges in 1969, it has presently more than 35 teaching departments and more than 207 permanently/ temporarily affiliated colleges. University has its main campus in Jammu, besides it has established offsite campuses at Bhaderwah, Kathua, Udhampur, Ramban, Reasi, Poonch, Kishtwar and Ramnagar in its sole motto of providing higher education at the door steps in view of mountainous terrain of Jammu province.

Out of more than 207 (Govt./Non Govt.) Colleges affiliated permanently / temporarily to the University there are 73 Colleges of Education, one college is the Government College of Education while other 72 are the Non-Government Colleges of Education.

Of late, Jammu has emerged as a hub of teacher education in northern India since its colleges are catering to the needs of not only northern Indian states but to even far off states like Bihar, Jharkhand, MP, Maharashtra, Gujarat & Orissa. The zone-wise district wise Distribution of the Colleges of Education is as under:-
