Baba Sahib Ambedker Road, New Campus, University of Jammu, Jammu (J&K)-180006

ORDER

It has been observed by the University Authorities that over the last few days a regular practice has been resorted to by the students to close the gates of the University for pressurizing the University Authorities to concede their all demands without looking into its genuineness, which causes a lot of inconvenience to the employees as well as other stakeholders of the University, hereby, hampering the smooth functioning of the University.

In view of the above, while reiterating its resolve to provide a safe, secure and smooth working environment to all the University employees and its stakeholders and without undermining the genuine rights of the individuals to protest in a democratic way for redressal of their genuine concerns, it has been decided that henceforth, resorting to undemocratic mode of protest like closing of the gates of the University Campus by any one as a matter of protest and misbehaving with the University employees/ Security personnel of the University while discharging their duties shall be treated purely as an unlawful activity and anybody, if found involved in any such unlawful/ undemocratic activity shall be liable for strict disciplinary action as warranted under rules.

The above may be noted for Strict Compliance of all.
