Department of Student Welfare organizes Online Dance Competition

Pandemic lockdown might be pervasive but not all our movements are restricted .This has led to a rise in dance as people seek fitness, stress relief, healing and connection. It has been discovered that creative dancer share two similar genes with good communicators. And that's the need of the hour.

So keeping this idea in mind Department of Students Welfare is organizing an Online Dance Competition (Freestyle) for the Students of Affiliated Degree Colleges/Departments/Offsite Campuses of University of Jammu.

The students enthusiastically participated in the online dance competition as they got an opportunity to exhibit their talent and confidence. As it was a freestyle Dance Competition, students chose a variety of Dance styles for the performance.

The first prize was won by Alisha Bangotra, from Department of Life Long Learning, University of Jammu whereas second prize was shared by Richa Sharma from Department of Political Science & Sakshi Gupta from Department of Chemistry, University of Jammu. Third position was won by Nedhi Parmar from Department of Zoology.

The event was judged by Famous Dancer & DYT Alumnus Mrs Manju Wazir.
