

Textbook Section

Textbook Section is located on the First floor of “Dhanvantri Library” and houses a rich collection of text books relevant to the courses being taught in the University.

SERVICES

- The textbooks has been organised in the Almirahs subject-wise following the Dewey Decimal System of classification.
- Users (Students, Research Scholars and Faculty) visiting the section are assisted in retrieval of their required textbook.
- Books are with close access system and issued to users for reference and xerox only.
- Sufficient reading tables and comfortable chairs are provided to for consultation of books.
- Book recommendation forms are made available in section for users who can recommend a book.

