6.0. Pedagogical approaches

The Learning Outcomes-Based Approach to curriculum planning and transaction requires that the pedagogical approaches are oriented towards enabling students to attain the defined learning outcomes relating to the courses within a programme. The outcome-based approach, particularly in the context of undergraduate studies, requires a significant shift from teacher-centric to learner-centric pedagogies, and from passive to active/participatory pedagogies. Every programme of study lends itself to the well-structured and sequenced acquisition of knowledge and skills. Practical skills, including an appreciation of the link between theory and practice, will constitute an important aspect of the teaching-learning process. Teaching methods, guided by such a framework, may include lectures supported by tutorial work; practicum and field-based learning; the use of prescribed textbooks and e-learning resources and other self-study materials; field-based learning/project, open-ended project work, some of which may be team-based; activities designed to promote the development of generic/transferable and subject-specific skills; and internship and visits to field sites, and industrial or other research facilities etc.

related disciplines through the minor stream. Students will also gain work-related skills through courses in vocational education. The programme structure will enable the students to gain sufficient knowledge and skills to meet the industry/society requirements.

Semesters 7 & 8: During the 4th and final year, students will undertake advanced level courses in both major and minor streams to get a UG Degree (Honours). Students choose a research component with courses relating to research methodology, advanced courses in theory and applied areas, and seminar presentations. Students may be permitted to carry out a research project or dissertation in another department of the same institution or another institution provided the required facilities are available.

MESSAGE OF THE DEAN ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

As the Dean of the Academic affairs of the University of Jammu which is accredited as A*, it is a great pleasure to welcome our new students. And it is also a great responsibility.

Education at University of Jammu & affiliated Colleges is a joint process of discovery between the teacher and the taught, bringing with it the joy of revelation, and allowing undergraduate students to participate in the creation of knowledge, rather than being passive recipients.

With the implementation of the NEP 2020, the University is building an eco-system of knowledge to promote recognition of the inter-connectedness of ideas, systems, and environments in the world inside the campus as well as in all its colleges.

- The University has 66 UG programs offered across 65 affiliated Colleges and 7 University Departments that allow for an innovative curriculum with a variety of Major and Minor course combinations. It provides heterogeneous curricula, pedagogy, and assessment. All programs in the Undergraduate curriculum are structured to reflect the University's belief that multidisciplinary and trans-disciplinary thinking is the key to new discoveries. Each program is anchored in Core Common Curriculum- a set of courses aimed to expose students to essential practice and knowledge. Students are required to take Electives to help them develop their knowledge in fields of interest that might lead to specialized choice of a Minor. Disciplinary Majors help develop expertise in specific subjects. Research, Experiential and Skill Learning courses provide global perspectives, and experience in integrated research. Values, Ethics, Leadership and Service provide the philosophical and moral bedrock for future achievement. Undergraduates will have the opportunity to pursue individual and group research projects with faculty members, creating the perfect mix of new ideas, and established expertise on each team engaged in a project, or a class engaged in learning.

The University of Jammu puts the student at the centre of everything it does; your experience and success here at University of Jammu & its affiliated Colleges is important to each and every member of staff who works here. Your arrival at university marks a new chapter in the story of your life. But this chapter is a bit different. There is a big difference between school and university. The preceding years were largely written by others – your parents, guardians, families, teachers and the like. Now you will be the principal author of the new chapter in your life – you have the opportunity to determine the direction, the plot and the tempo of your story. I wish you every success, in your journey at the University of Jammu and I am confident that you will find it an immensely rewarding experience.

Welcome to the University of Jammu.

Prof. Anju Bhasin

CBME CURRICULUM

1. Preamble

The new Graduate Medical Education Regulations attempts to stand on the shoulder of the contributions and the efforts of resource persons, teachers and students (past and present). It intends to take the learner to provide health care to the evolving needs of the nation and the world.

About 25 years have passed since the existing Regulations on Graduate Medical Education, 1997 were notified, necessitating a relook at all aspects of the various components in the existing regulations and adapt them to the changing demography, socio-economic context, perceptions, values, advancements in medical education and expectations of stakeholders. Emerging health care issues particularly in the context of emerging diseases, impact of advances in science and technology and shorter distances on diseases and their management also need consideration. The strong and forward-looking fundamentals enshrined in the Regulations on Graduate Medical Education, 1997 has made this job easier. A comparison between the 1997 Regulations and proposed Graduate Medical Education Regulations, 2019 will reveal that the 2019 Regulations have evolved from several key principles enshrined in the 1997 Regulations.

The thrust in the new regulations is continuation and evolution of thought in medical education making it more learner-centric, patient-centric, gender- sensitive, outcome -oriented and environment appropriate. The result is an outcome driven curriculum which conforms to global trends. Emphasis is made on alignment and integration of subjects both horizontally and vertically while respecting the strengths and necessity of subject-based instruction and assessment. This has necessitated a deviation from using "broad competencies"; instead, the reports have written end of phase subject (sub) competencies. These "sub-competencies" can be mapped to the global competencies in the Graduate Medical Education Regulations.

The importance of ethical values, responsiveness to the needs of the patient and acquisition of communication skills is underscored by providing dedicated curriculum time in the form of a longitudinal program based on Attitude, Ethics and Communication (AETCOM) competencies. Great emphasis has been placed on collaborative and inter-disciplinary teamwork, professionalism, altruism and respect in professional relationships with due sensitivity to differences in thought, social and economic position and gender.

III. AGENDA ITEMS

ITEM No.: III.1

To consider the request to increase the admission intake in M.Sc. Microbiology Program from 10 to 15 seats.

NOTE:

The University has started M.Sc. Microbiology Programme in the Year 2004 as Self-Sponsored programme in the School of Biotechnology with intake capacity of 10 students in an academic year. Till date (approx.180) students have been awarded M.Sc. degree in Microbiology and 10 students are in the process of completion of their degree. From the last few years the School is receiving a large number of application forms from the candidates for seeking admission to M.Sc. Microbiology but due to limited number of seats many desirous candidates fail to get admission. Therefore, the DAC proposes to increase the number of seats for admission in M.Sc. Microbiology to 15 (fifteen).

This endeavor is rooted in the remarkable scope and demand for microbiology professionals in today's job market. Microbiology holds increasing relevance across various industries, offering diverse career opportunities in clinical microbiology, industrial microbiology, environmental microbiology, research and development, food microbiology, pharmaceuticals, biotechnology, academia, public health, and agriculture. By enlarging our program, we not only align with industry trends but also address the evident shortage of skilled microbiologists, offering students exceptional job prospects upon graduation. Additionally, this expansion would foster increased research output, enhancing the university's contribution to scientific advancements and innovation. Graduates of the Microbiology program have a significant impact on local and national economies through their work in vital industries like healthcare, biotechnology, and agriculture. Needless to mention that during the latest COVID-Pandemic there was a huge demand for personnel trained in microbiology. This strategic move not only responds to the evolving demands of the job market but also solidifies our position as a forward-thinking institution, contributing significantly to both the academic community and the broader society.

Keeping in view the above the DAC requests to consider our proposal to increase the number of seats for admission to M.Sc. Microbiology from 10 to 15 (fifteen) from the next Academic session. Also the School has all the required infrastructure to accommodate 15 students.

ITEM No.: III.2

To consider the matter w.r.t. introduction of Two Years Master's Degree Programme in Political Science in the Reasi Campus, University of Jammu from the Academic Session 2024-25.

NOTE:

The Reasi Campus of University of Jammu has been functioning in the district Reasi since 2007 with the objective of providing the higher education to the deserving students of the rural and far-flung areas of the Union Territory of Jammu & Kashmir. The Reasi Campus offers only one course i.e. Master Degree Programme (MDP) in Sociology since its inception. The Reasi Campus could not open any other courses due to the space constraints. As it seems now that our upcoming Campus buildings shall be completed soon and the newly constructed Campus shall be made functional. Since the Campus has sufficient space in order to cater more students. We could attract the students only in one stream till now due to space constraints but now there is no space constraints as the buildings are already constructed. Further, opening of the new course shall attract more students of the Reasi area to the Reasi Campus, University of Jammu.

Therefore, it has come to our attention to open new course in the Reasi Campus. In this aspect, it is observed that the subject of Political Science, an equally significant discipline, has not been offered as a regular Master's degree program course at any offsite Campuses as well as GDC Reasi.

There is a substantial interest among students at Reasi Campus to pursue higher education in Political Science. Currently, the students are compelled to migrate to the main campus or other places to pursue this discipline, causing inconvenience and added expenses. By offering a Master's degree program in Political Science, the same can fulfill the aspirations of these students and provide with an opportunity to specialize in this field closer to their home.

Political Science is the study of government, its policies, and the political behaviour of different organizations. A degree in political science is a gateway for you to lead a powerful career in state and local government or the organizations related to them. Candidates with a degree and great knowledge of political science can pursue a career in many fields such as law, journalism, marketing research, teaching, and civil services. This course will include entire spectrum of discipline such as Political Theory; Western & Indian Thought; International Relations & International Political Economy; International Organization and International Law; India's Foreign Policy; Comparative Politics and Politics in South Asia; Indian Politics, State Politics & Political Economy; Public Administration and Indian Administration and Politics in Jammu & Kashmir.

The opinion regarding employability potential of the said programme has been obtained from the Dean Students Placement which is reproduced below:

"the subject of Political Science has got multiplied potential in various sectors such as Journalism, Law, Administrative services, Professional services in addition to that in Academics. Therefore, inception of Master's Degree Programme in Political Science is good concept at Reasi Campus as it would benefit the local students for pursuing their career."

The Convener/Head, Department of Political Science, University of Jammu has opined that the Master's Degree Programme in Political Science in Reasi Campus may be started as proposed from the next academic session, however, the required infrastructure including Library and faculty should be in place before stating this programme.

The proposal was sent to the Dean, Planning and Development, University of Jammu in view of teaching, non-teaching staff and infrastructure in the Reasi Campus and the Dean, Planning and Development has stated that the Master's Degree Programme in Political Science in Reasi Campus, University of Jammu may be started as proposed from the next academic session, keeping in view the fact that adequate infrastructure is available in the Campus and it needs to be put to optimal nor. The request for non-teaching positions has already been sent to Higher Education Department through office of the Registrar, which also include Reasi Campus (Annexure-I). The detailed proposal is placed as Annexure-II.

Moreover, the Statutes for Master's Degree Programme under CBCS and Syllabus offered in the Main Campus shall be applicable for the Reasi Campus.

Hence, the matter w.r.t. introduction of Two Years Master's Degree Programme in Political Science in the Reasi Campus, University of Jammu from the Academic Session 2024-25, is submitted for consideration.

Introduction about Reasi Campus

The Reasi campus of University of Jammu has been functioning in the district Reasi since 2007 with the objective of providing the higher education to the deserving students of the rural and far-flung areas of the Union Territory of Jammu & Kashmir. The Reasi Campus offers only Master Degree Programme (MDP) in Sociology since its inception. The Reasi Campus has introduced CHOICE BASED CREDIT SYSTEM (CBCS) from the last academic session 2021-22. Presently, the campus is running in the DIET complex at Reasi. The new upcoming Reasi Campus is being constructed approximately in 63 Acres of land at village Jadh, Reasi, which is comprised of an Academic block, Girl's and Boy's hostel. The newly constructed campus is near completion and likely to be made functional soon in future.

Course Overview and its implementation in Reasi Campus

I am writing to present proposal on behalf of the faculty, staff, and students of Reasi Campus and requesting the introduction of a Master's degree program in Political Science at our institution.

Firstly, I would like to commend the continuous efforts of the University of Jammu in expanding educational opportunities and fostering academic excellence in the region. Since its establishment in 2007, Reasi Campus has been operating successfully, catering primarily to the field of Sociology through the existing Master's degree program. The Reasi Campus could not open any other courses due to the space constraints. As it seems now that our upcoming Campus buildings shall be completed soon and the newly constructed Campus shall be made functional. Since the Campus has sufficient space in order to cater more students. It has come to our attention to open new course in the Reasi Campus. In this aspect, it is observed that the subject of Political Science, an equally significant discipline, has not been offered as a regular Master's degree program course at any offsite Campuses as well as GDC Reasi.

Considering the growing importance of political science in today's complex and rapidly changing global landscape, we believe that it is essential to bridge this gap in our academic offerings. By introducing a Master's degree program in Political Science at Reasi Campus, we can provide a comprehensive education in the field and meet the increasing demand for qualified professionals in political analysis, governance and public administration.

Justification for the introduction of M.A. Political Science in Reasi Campus, University of Jammu:

We have several reasons to support the implementation of this program at Reasi Campus:

1. Academic Demand: There is a substantial interest among students at Reasi Campus to pursue higher education in Political Science. Currently, the students are compelled to migrate to the main campus or other places to pursue this discipline, causing inconvenience and added expenses. By offering a Master's degree program in Political Science, we can fulfil the aspirations of these students and provide them with an opportunity to specialize in this field closer to their home.
2. Regional Relevance: The region of Reasi and its surrounding areas have witnessed significant political developments in recent years. With its diverse population, socio-political complexities, and proximity to the emerging city, our campus can serve as an ideal location for the study and analysis of political dynamics. By establishing a Political Science program, we can facilitate research and understanding of the local political landscape, contributing to both academia and society.
3. We could attract the students only in one stream till now due to space constraints but now there is no space constraints as the buildings are already constructed. Further, opening of the new course shall attract more students of the Reasi area to the Reasi Campus, JU.
4. Interdisciplinary Opportunities: The introduction of a Master's program in Political Science at Reasi Campus will encourage interdisciplinary collaboration between Sociology and Political Science departments. This synergy will enable students to gain a more comprehensive understanding of societal and political issues, leading to a holistic approach to their research and analysis.

In light of the above factors, we kindly request your favourable consideration and support for the initiation of two years Master's degree program in Political Science at Reasi Campus. We are confident that this step will not only contribute to the academic growth of our institution but also create new opportunities for the students and facilitate the overall development of the region.

We are prepared to work closely with the university administration, faculty, and staff to ensure the smooth implementation of this program. Furthermore, we are committed to meeting all the necessary requirements, including faculty recruitment, infrastructure development, and curriculum design, to maintain the high standards that the University of Jammu is known for. Therefore, it is proposed that the Post-Graduate Department of Political Science may be opened at the Reasi Campus of University of Jammu from the academic session 2024-25.

Scope of Political Science

Political science is the study of government, its policies, and the political behaviour of different organizations. A degree in political science is a gateway for you to lead a powerful career in state and local government or the organizations related to them. Candidates with a degree and great knowledge of political science can pursue a career in many fields such as law, journalism, marketing research, teaching, and civil services. This course will include entire spectrum of discipline such as Political Theory; Western & Indian Thought; International Relations & International Political Economy; International Organization and International Law; India's Foreign Policy; Comparative Politics and Politics in South Asia; Indian Politics, State Politics & Political Economy; Public Administration and Indian Administration and Politics in Jammu & Kashmir.

Objectives and Learning Outcomes

The revision of curriculum of Master Degree Programme is done keeping in view its objectives and learning outcomes. The broader objectives of programme are to impart knowledge to the students in the foundational/core courses of discipline, applied dimension of politics at international, national, state and local levels and the dynamics of discipline of Political Science which have always been in the constant process of change in the context of changing time and space. The changing modes of politics at all the levels and thereby the nature of discipline of Political science have also been the objective of the curriculum. The Learning Outcomes Based Curriculum (LOBC) was one of the core considerations while revising the syllabus of Master Degree Programme. The learning outcomes of programme will enable the learners to develop an understanding about the universal principles, institutions, processes, actors, structures & structural differentiation, structural harmony and structural conflict. The curriculum will empower the learners in understanding and applying the pedagogical skills to approach the issues and challenges confronting the discipline and politics at local, state, national and international 3 levels. It will equip the learners with inter-disciplinary and comparative pedagogy to grasp the subject in its entirety. The curriculum revision intends to introduce greater degree of flexibility, inter-disciplinarily and comparability in the teaching learning and assessment of students learning levels. The learning outcomes of programme are spelled out in terms of sound knowledge base, critical thinking and comprehension ability, problem solving & communication skills, organizational behaviour & team work and professional integrity.

ITEM No.: III.3

To consider the matter w.r.t. introduction of Tourism and Travel Management subject in the Four Year Under Graduate Programme (FYUGP) as per National Education Policy (NEP)-2020 from the Academic Session 2024-25.

NOTE:

The University of Jammu through School of Hospitality and Tourism Management, Faculty of Business Studies is offering Under Graduate and Post Graduate Degree Program in the area of hospitality, tourism and travel management since 2001. It is pertinent to mention that tourism and hospitality industry is a vibrant and growing both at the national and UT level with government laying emphasis on this sector. United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) recently laid emphasis on building adequate knowledge, skills and competencies among the local communities in order to leverage the benefits of the tourism sector. In Jammu & Kashmir tourism is a primary economic activity which has to potential to create entrepreneurs and also employment. It is therefore pertinent to introduce tourism as a subject at all levels of education so as to orient the younger generation about the benefits and impacts of this industry. Further, students undergoing this course at UG level will be more inclined to pursue higher studies in this discipline and shall seek admission at the University level.

At present, the colleges affiliated to University of Jammu are not offering tourism and travel management (TTM) at the UG level as the Four Year Under Graduate Programmes (FYUGP) as per National Education Policy 2020 of University of Jammu notified vide F.Acd/I/22/10083-10142 dated 23-11-2022 does not include Tourism and Travel Management (TTM) under the list of subject and disciplines offered from academic session 2022-2023. On the other hand, colleges affiliated to University of Kashmir are offering the subject as major/minor in accordance with their notification F(UG-Statutes-NEP-2020)/Acad/KU/ 23 dated 04-08-2023.

In light of this, Board of Studies in Hospitality and Tourism Management in its meeting held on October 9, 2023 proposed that Tourism and Travel Management may be included under the list of subjects and disciplines of FYUGP of University of Jammu and also introduced from academic session 2024-25. It was resolved that the matter may be placed in the Academic Council for approval. Upon approval, the BoS will prepare the detailed outline of the courses and syllabus for consideration and approval. The minutes of the Board of Studies is placed as Annexure.

Hence, the matter is submitted for consideration.

ITEM No.: III.8

To consider the matter w.r.t. adoption of the new IT Policy of the University of Jammu in place of existing IT Policy.

NOTE:

The IT policy of the University was adopted many years ago and is no longer able to cater to the requirements of IT facilities in the University, neither for the CITES&M nor for the users. In the post COVID scenario the use of IT and allied services has risen many time and also the threat to security of the University IT network both from within and outside has increased many fold. The Centre for IT has drafted a new comprehensive IT policy which covers almost all the aspects of IT, the expectations as well as responsibilities of the users.

The existing IT Policy of the University of Jammu is placed as Annexure-I.

The proposed new IT Policy of the University of Jammu is placed as Annexure-II.

Hence, the matter is submitted for consideration.

A. IP Address Allocation

Any computer (PC/Server) that will be connected to the university network, should have an IP address assigned by the Centre for IT. Following a systematic approach, the range of IP addresses that will be allocated will be based on Virtual LAN (VLAN) created against each entity or objective. Any device connected to the network will be allocated IP address only from that address pool. Further, each network port in the room from where that computer will be connected will have binding internally with that IP address so that no other person uses that IP address unauthorized from any other location.

As and when a new computer is installed in any location, it will be allocated as per the DHCP pool policies.

An IP address allocated for a particular computer system should not be used on any other computer even if that other computer belongs to the same individual and will be connected to the same port. IP address for each computer should be obtained separately by filling up a requisition form meant for this purpose.

B. DHCP and Proxy Configuration by Individual Departments /Sections/ Users

Use of any computer at end user location as a DHCP server to connect to more computers through an individual switch/hub and distributing IP addresses (public or private) should strictly be avoided, as it is considered absolute violation of IP address allocation policy of the university. Similarly, configuration of proxy servers should also be avoided, as it may interfere with the services run by the Centre for IT.

Even configuration of any computer with additional network interface card and connecting another computer to it is considered as proxy/DHCP configuration.

Non-compliance to the IP address allocation policy will result in disconnecting the port from which such computer is connected to the network. Connection will be restored after receiving written assurance of compliance from the concerned department/user.

C. Running Network Services on the Servers

- a. Individual departments/individuals connecting to the university network over the LAN may run server software, e.g., HTTP/Web server, SMTP server, FTP server, only after bringing it to the knowledge of the Centre for IT in writing and after meeting the requirements of the university IT policy for running such services. Non-compliance with this policy is a direct violation of the university IT policy, and will result in termination of their connection to the Network.
- b. Centre for IT takes no responsibility for the content of machines connected to the Network, regardless of those machines being University or personal property.
- c. Centre for IT will be constrained to disconnect client machines where potentially damaging software is found to exist. A client machine may also be disconnected if the client's activity adversely affects the Network's performance.

- d. Access to remote networks using a University's network connection must be in compliance with all policies and rules of those networks. This applies to any and all networks to which the University Network connects. University network and computer resources are not to be used for personal commercial purposes.
- e. Network traffic will be monitored for security and for performance reasons at Centre for IT.
- f. Impersonation of an authorized user while connecting to the Network is in direct violation of this policy and will result in the termination of the connection.

D. Internet Bandwidth obtained by Other Departments

- a. Internet bandwidth acquired by any department of the university under any research programme/project should ideally be pooled with the university's Internet bandwidth, and be treated as university's common resource.
- b. Under particular circumstances, which prevent any such pooling with the university Internet bandwidth, such network should be totally separated from the university's campus network. All the computer systems using that network should have separate VLANs based on grouping criterion.
- c. IP address scheme (private as well as public) and the university gateway should not be specified as alternative gateway. Such networks should be adequately equipped with necessary network security measures as laid down by the university IT policy. One copy of the network diagram giving the details of the network design and the IP address schemes used may be submitted to Centre for IT.
- d. Non-compliance to this policy will be direct violation of the university's IT security policy.

25. Email Account Usage Policy

JU provides official email access privileges to its users. In an effort to handle the efficient information dissemination among the administration, faculty members, staffs and students, it is recommended to avail official email with University of Jammu's domain. The general e-mail address format used for faculty, staff, office is username@jammuuniversity.ac.in, unless specifically requested and for research scholars is username.xxx@jammuuniversity.ac.in.

In an effort to increase the efficient distribution of critical information to all faculty, staff and students, and the University's administrators, it is recommended to utilize the university's e-mail services, for formal University communication and for academic & other official purposes.

E-mail for formal communications will facilitate the delivery of messages and documents to campus and extended communities or to distinct user groups and individuals. Formal University communications are official notices from the University to faculty, staff and students. These communications may include administrative content, such as human resources information, policy messages, general University messages, official announcements, etc.

To receive these notices, it is essential that the e-mail address be kept active by using it regularly. Staff and faculty may use the email facility by logging on to <http://gmail.com> with their User ID and password. For obtaining the university's email account, user may contact Centre for IT for email account and default password by submitting an application in a prescribed proforma.

Users may be aware that by using the email facility, the users are agreeing to abide by the following policies:

- 1) The facility should be used primarily for academic and official purposes and to a limited extent for personal purposes.
- 2) Using the facility for illegal/commercial purposes is a direct violation of the university's IT policy and may entail withdrawal of the facility. The illegal use includes, but is not limited to, the unlicensed and illegal copying or distribution of software, sending of unsolicited bulk e-mail messages. And generation of threatening, harassing, abusive, obscene or fraudulent messages/images.

- 3) While sending large attachments to others, user should make sure that the recipient has email facility that allows him to receive such large attachments.
- 4) User should keep the mail box used space within about 80% usage threshold, as 'mail box full' or 'mailbox almost full' situation will result in bouncing of the mails, especially when the incoming mail contains large attachments.
- 5) User should not open any mail or attachment that is from unknown and suspicious source. Even if it is from known source, and if it contains any attachment that is of suspicious in nature or looks dubious, user should get confirmation from the sender about its authenticity before opening it. This is very much essential from the point of security of the user's computer, as such messages may contain viruses that have potential to damage the valuable information on your computer.
- 6) User should not share his/her email account's credentials with others, as the individual account holder is personally held accountable, in case of any misuse of that email account.
- 7) User should refrain from intercepting, or trying to break into others email accounts, as it is infringing the privacy of other users.
- 8) While using the computers that are shared by other users as well, any email account that was accidentally left open by another user, should be promptly closed without peeping into its contents, by the user who has occupied that computer for its use.
- 9) Impersonating email account of others will be taken as a serious offence under the IT security policy.
- 10) It is ultimately each individual's responsibility to keep their e-mail account free from violations of university's email usage policy.
- 11) All the mails detected as spam mails go into SPAM_MAIL folder of the respective users' mail accounts. Users are requested to open these folders periodically to check any important mail wrongly stamped as SPAM mail and went into this folder. It is recommended to empty this folder as frequently as possible.

The above laid down policies particularly 1 to 11 are broadly applicable even to the email services that are provided by other service providers such as Gmail, Hotmail, Yahoo, RediffMail etc., as long as they are being used from the university's campus network, or by using the resources provided by the university to the individual for official use even from outside.

If any breach of this Policy is observed, then (in addition to the above) disciplinary action up to and including dismissal in the case of Staff, expulsion in the case of Students or contract termination in the case of third parties may be taken in accordance with the University's disciplinary procedures.

28. Revisions to Policy
