

Notice

Applications are invited for the three months training course on Artificial Intelligence under Skill Development for Digital J&K organized by Centre for Women's Studies, in collaboration with NIELIT, University of Jammu (Session 2026-27)

The deliverables of the training program are as under:

- Credit based course enabling student to earn credit in their academic bank of credits
- NSQF (National Skill Qualification Framework) aligned helps student gain practical exposure to futuristic technologies and also enhance their academic growth and improve career opportunities in IT and related field
- No fee
- Free skill development kit and training material shall be given to registered candidates
- National level, Examination
- Placement assistance

Eligibility 10th pass

Mode of training online (40%) off-line (60%), preferably off-line

Batch size- 30 candidates

Certification exam will be conducted for candidates with 75% attendance by NIELIT headquarter after successful completion of the course.

Certificate will be issued by NIELIT headquarter

Therefore, interested candidates may contact the Centre for Women Studies for details regarding the registration form, last date for submission, class schedule, examination, and other course-related information. For any information or query, you may contact 9906074693 and 7006576855 or through e-mail cwsju@rediffmail.com