

I TOLD YOU SO

My beloved, don't do it,
I had told you so.

Don't fall in love with snakes,
I had told you so.

Do not trust people blindly,
I had told you so.

Life would cease to exist without you for thousands,
Don't give yourself away,
I had told you so.

Your eyes are the treasure of my soul,
Don't rob me of your love,
I had told you so.

But when you do, don't beg Saif for help,
Think about it a million times before you do.

My beloved, please don't make me say,
I had told you so.
