

Post Graduate Department of Punjabi University of Jammu

Dated 20/04/2023

Lecture on Intellectual Property Right, (IPR)

A special lecture on intellectual Property Right (IPR) was organized on in the Post Graduate Department of Punjabi on march 23, 2023 at 12:00 Noon. Prof. Anupama Vohra, Professor of English in Directorate of Distance and Online Education & convenor, Publication Cell, University of Jammu was the speaker. Prof. Baljeet Kour, Head Department of Punjabi introduced and formally welcomed the resource person to the Scholars and students. The main theme of the lecture was Plagiarism. The lecture was focused on How to avoid Plagiarism in Research, while writing research articles, papers & PhD thesis. She emphasised in her lecture that plagiarism is an act of copying or reproducing someone else's work or idea as ones own which is a criminal activity and a person indulging in plagiarism can be sued in the court of law. During the lecture Prof. Vohra was also thrown some light on various types of Plagiarism. She Explained some methods to scholars and students to avoid plagiarism especially self plagiarism.

She further stated that as per the UGC anti-plagiarism act issued in 2017, plagiarism up to 10% is tolerable but beyond that it invites revision, rewriting and even rejection of the PhD Thesis. Very precious and useful information given through her lecture. The scholar and students of the Department of Punjabi, Dogri and Urdu attended and appreciated the lecture.