

Post Graduate Department of Punjabi University of Jammu

Dated 20/04/2023

BOOK RELEASE FUNCTION

Post Graduate Department of Punjabi, Jammu University in Collaboration with Punjabi Sahitak Sabha R.S. Pura, Jammu organised a literary function to release a book, "Triveni" a collection of 25 short stories of prominent Punjabi author Prof. Anmol Singh. The programme started with the welcome address by Dr Baljeet Kaur HOD Punjabi Department who threw light upon the various activities being performed by the Punjabi Department to encourage the writers and poets of the UT. She welcomed the august audience which included the writers, poets, intellectuals, university scholars and the family members of Prof.

Anmol Singh ji which included his elder son Lt Col Manmeet Singh, his daughter in law Smt. Sandeep Kaur (Session Judge) and his younger son S. Sumit Singh. Dr Arvinder Ann was the Chief guest and S. Satinder Singh Bijral Retd IGP presided over the function. Baljit Kour HOD Punjabi department, Prof. Anmol Singh ji and S. Harjit Singh Uppal, President PSS shared the presidium. S. Harjit Singh Uppal threw light upon the life and literary contributions of Prof. Anmol Singh ji in detail. After the formal release of the book, Amanpreet Kaur, a PhD scholar read out her paper on the stories in the book. Prof. Anmol Singh ji spoke in details about the anecdotes of his life and his unique contributions of discoveries of scientific truths in Gurbani in his various writings. Dr Baljit Raina, president PLS presented his views about the relevance of the stories in the present context. Dr Monojit , a famous satire writer related his memories with Prof . Anmol Singh ji from the college days. Dr Ann spoke about the dedication of Prof. Anmol Singh ji towards Punjabi language and his consistent endeavour for its development throughout his life. In his presidential speech S. Satinder Singh Bijral spoke about his long association with Prof. Anmol Singh ji and he further enlightened the audience about the relevance of Gurbani in the present scenario of the world.

The proceedings of the programme were conducted by Dr Pritam Singh with his prompt wit and views. The programme concluded with the vote of thanks by Dr Harjinder Singh who presented his views about the efforts of the department for the cause of Punjabi literary activities and lastly, he invited everybody for a cup of tea and snacks.